don't waste your money on this, you can google more info than what is in this book, I cut it up into pieces and slid em under a table leg to balance a table on an uneven floor. Works greeeeeeaaaat for that purpose.

This book gives a fantastic breakdown of what to expect throughout DCC, as well as some good insight on broader topics. The amount of detail and coverage for each week and event provides a general idea of how training will unfold from in-processing to graduation. I recommend pairing this book with the author's blog ([...]), which includes some pictures and a more in-the-moment feel.

I can't recommend this book enough for anyone serving, or considering serving, in the Army Judge Advocate General Corps. Whether you're Active Duty, Reserve, or National Guard, this book applies to you. Buy it, highlight it, and make notes. You'll thank him later.

Love anything about the military. Official manuals are dry, books like this gave flavor to what our troops are being taught.
