The Music Of Gershwin (Composers Of The Twentieth Century Serie)

Synopsis

This book is the first in-depth analysis of George Gershwin's entire compositional oeuvre, including his concert music. Written in a fluid, conversational style and illustrated with numerous musical examples, some of which have never before been published, it weaves biographical material with musical analysis and presents a chronological study of Gershwin's career.

Customer Reviews

This is great book that gives the reader a look into the technical aspects of Gershwin's music. There are several analysis of his serious compositions as well as some of the lesser known songs. This is a must for the Gershwin scholar.
