Customer Reviews

I think that it is wonderful to have this book in Spanish. I loved the pictures and the tale was one that expressed the love of a mother for a child. Another good book, also by Margaret Wise Brown, is Goodnight Moon (Buenas Noches, Luna). Both books feature the wonderful characters of rabbits in personified situations.

¡Excelente! Me gusta el libro. Aprendo español con mi niño y este libro nos está ayudando. I like the book. I am learning Spanish with the little boy I look after and this book is helping us. We know the story in English, and now we are learning it in Spanish. I like it better when we have two separate books - one in English and one in Spanish than when we have one book with both languages, because then we don't "cheat" and look at the English. It also lets us have a small amount of "immersion" time when we only speak the new language - even if it's only for 5 or 10 min.

My daughter loves "Buenas Noches, Luna" and this one became her new favorite. It rhymes in Spanish just like Buenas Noche Luna which is the reason I bought it. She wants this one all the time now. She's almost 15 months. The book has many blank pages in front and in the back, I thought that there were some pages of the story missing but they are not. Weird but no big deal. It's all paperback. I like to get her the same books in boardbook because she likes to read them in the car. I don't like using dvd or tv. She spends the time in the car reading books to herself. So I get them in small boardbook style also so it's easy for her to read them in the car seat.

I'm teaching spanish to my 22 months old son, the translation is great, but could be better if it was a hard cover and not paper back.
