Customer Reviews

Painstakingly researched, compiled and written by three world-class wind ensemble authorities. With the combined experiences and vast international wind ensemble literature knowledge of these highly-regarded and well-respected American bandmasters Robert Grechecky, Thomas Dvorak, and Gary Ciepluch, you can be sure - no, you can be GUARANTEED! - that works included in this unique, expansive repertoire collection are not only suitable, but perfect for your programming needs as a band director. A must on the shelf (and on the desk!) of every band director, music educator, and music library around the world.
